

CALENDAR

shows, magic dealers and magic ministers and ventriloquists. Short shows and impromptu performances will take place on the sidewalks or in restaurants. The day ends with a magic show being held in the Colon High School Auditorium. On Wednesday, Mr. Greenjeans direct from the New Captain Kangaroo Show will bring a stage spectacle titled "Invisible Inc." to the Colon stage. For more information, call the Abbot's Magic Company at 616-432-3235 or 616-432-3236.

ping musical about Huck Finn and his travels down the Mississippi, and is winner of seven Tony Awards. The performance stars Stephen Lynch as Huck and Jeff Coopwood as Jim. Showtimes are at 8:30 p.m. today and Friday. Tickets are $22.50 today, and $25 for Friday. The Barn Theatre is located at M-96, one mile west of Augusta. Call 616-731-4121 for more information.

OPENING SOON: South Pacific will take the stage at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday at The Barn Theatre located in Augusta. The Rodgers and Hammerstein's wartime romance on a tropical island during World War II will feature favorite scores such as A Cockeyed Optimist, Some Enchanted Evening, Happy Talk and I'm Gonna Wash

THEATRE

TALES OF HUCK FINN: The Barn Theatre has begun its production of Big River. The production is based on Roger Miller's toe-tap-